

Metro Ticket Generating System

Based on requirement analysis, stakeholder mapping and solution design conducted individually by Shaik Zuveriya Tabassum
ServiceNow Global Certification Program

| SCENARIOBrowsing, booking, and using a Metro digital ticket via ServiceNow Service Catalog                            | ◆EnticeHow does a passenger become aware of the ticket booking option?                                     | →EnterWhat happens as they begin the process?                                                                   | ●EngageWhat happens in the core booking moments?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | ↩ExitWhat happens as the process finishes?                                                                                                                                                   | ↻ExtendWhat happens after the ride is over?                                                                                                                                                     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 🚶StepsWhat does the passenger typically experience?                                                               | Needs to travel via city metro Opens ServiceNow employee/citizen portal on desktop or mobile | Navigates to Metro Ticket catalog item Finds it under Service Catalog &gt; Travel &amp; Transport | Fills booking form Enters Source, Destination, Passenger Type, No. of Tickets Fare auto-calculated Fare logic script computes cost based on distance/passenger type Submits request Clicks Order Now / Submit on the catalog form | QR ticket generated System auto-generates a digital QR-coded ticket record Confirmation shown Ticket summary + QR displayed on request confirmation page | Uses ticket at station QR scanned at entry/exit gate to validate the journey Ticket record stored Saved to passenger's request history for future reference |
| 💬InteractionsPeople: Who do they see/talk to?Places: Where are they?Things: What touchpoints do they use? | ServiceNow portal home page (web/mobile)                                                                | Service Catalog UI — Metro Ticket item page                                                                  | Catalog form with dynamic variables (Source, Destination, Passenger Type, Qty) Client script triggers live fare calculation                                                                                                                                                   | Request confirmation page with embedded QR image Station Managers &amp; IT Admins can view request via backend records                                                         | Station entry/exit QR scanner (physical touchpoint) Metro Operations Team monitors ticket usage logs                                                                              |
| 🎯Goals & motivations"Help me..." or "Help me avoid..." at each step                                               | Help me find a quick way to book my metro ride                                                          | Help me locate the ticket option without confusion                                                           | Help me enter my trip details easily and see the correct fare                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Help me get my ticket instantly and feel confident it's valid                                                                                                                             | Help me use my ticket smoothly and trust my data is safe                                                                                                                                     |
| 😊Positive momentsWhat feels enjoyable, fast, or delightful?                                                       | Portal is already familiar/trusted for other requests                                                   | Catalog item is easy to find and clearly labeled                                                             | Dynamic fields respond instantly; fare shown in real time                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | QR code appears immediately — no waiting or manual issue                                                                                                                                  | Scan-and-go entry feels fast and modern                                                                                                                                                      |
| ⚠️Negative momentsWhat feels frustrating or confusing?                                                            | Passenger unsure metro tickets can be booked here at all                                                | Catalog search returns too many unrelated travel items                                                       | Station names typed incorrectly cause fare mismatch errors                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Unclear whether QR should be saved, printed, or shown on phone                                                                                                                            | Scanner fails to read QR due to poor screen brightness                                                                                                                                       |
| 💡Areas of opportunityHow might we make each step better?                                                          | Promote metro ticketing on the portal homepage banner                                                   | Add a dedicated "Metro Ticket" quick-link / category tile                                                    | Add station dropdown with autocomplete to prevent typos                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Auto-send QR ticket via email/SMS as backup access                                                                                                                                        | Add offline QR caching and brightness auto-boost on scan screen                                                                                                                              |